

EASTER

Easter is God's yearly victory lap reminding us of the impossible made possible. Here's the basics: Jesus rose from the dead and that same power is available to you. Ridiculous ideas are achievable. You can cross the finish line on the thing you didn't think was possible. Go all out on dreams and visions—let Jesus make the impossible, possible.

Discussion Questions

1. Growing up, what was Easter like for you?
2. What is something that you're currently facing or wrestling with that falls into the category of the "impossible?"
3. The Gospels focus on the life, death, and resurrection of Jesus. When you think of Jesus, which of those three words come to mind the most?
4. Read Romans 8:11
And if the Spirit of him who raised Jesus from the dead is living in you, he who raised Christ from the dead will also give life to your mortal bodies because of his Spirit who lives in you.
  - What stands out to you about this passage?
  - How does this promise shape or reframe the impossible you are facing?
5. As you wore the word "POSSIBLE" on your hand over the weekend, in what ways did this serve as a reminder of the power this one single event we call Easter?
