

We've all heard stories of people—or we know people—who have what appears to be unshakable faith. They have a confidence in God that informs what they do. Where does faith like that come from? And how do we get it?

Discussion Questions

1. Before we jump in, what was your favorite Superbowl commercial?

2. Before the Gameday Teach-off, based on your understanding of religious people or your experience as a Jesus follower or with Christians, what would you have guessed most “amazed” Jesus?

3. How might your day or week look different if you woke up every single day with the confidence that God was with you and that he cared for you, and you lived in that confidence moment by moment?

4. Who is the most amazing Christian you know personally and why?

5. Read, or ask someone to read: MATTHEW 8:5–13.
 - What stands out to you?
 - In verse 10, what was it about the centurion that caused Jesus to say what he did?

6. What (or who) has contributed most to your personal faith in God? What has made it difficult to maintain faith?