

It's one thing to believe and enjoy practical teaching. But gaining knowledge is not enough to grow our faith —applying it is.

Discussion Questions

1. Before we dive into this weekend's content...with the roar of the IndyCar Engines as your primer, what is the thing you're most looking forward to as spring inches closer & closer?

2. Read, or ask someone to read: MATTHEW 7:24–29.
  - What stands out to you?

3. In the Sermon on the Mount Jesus talks about building on Sand & Rock. He encourages his audience to take the pain staking, difficult route of building your life on a firm & solid foundation. How have you seen this play out in your life?

4. Have there been times in your life when you went ahead and “built on the sand” even when you knew it might not be the best choice? What happened as a result?

5. How might your day or week look different if you woke up every day and asked God where he was active & moving that day and how you could be a part of it? Is that a practice that you can commit to your rhythm?

6. What might you do differently as a result of that prayer?
