

Week 2: How To Get To Where You Want To Be

This is the opportunity for your group will discover what God might be saying to you out of the weekend experience, and how you can respond through a group discussion. Let's go!

Questions for discussion:

1. To begin answer one of the following two questions:

Are you working on anything interesting or exciting right now? Explain
What is a project or initiative that would excite you right now? Why?

2. "What would you most like to change or improve about yourself?"

1 Corinthians 12:4-6 says this

Now there are varieties of gifts, but the same Spirit; and there are varieties of service, but the same Lord; and there are varieties of activities, but it is the same God who empowers them all in everyone.

3. This past weekend, Curt asked the question: "Do you believe God designed you to bring unique contributions to the world?' On a scale of 1 (not at all) to 10 (absolutely), what number would you pick and why?

Statistics show that we are most satisfied with life and engaged in our work when we are operating out of areas of the talents/strengths that God has hard-wired into our lives.

4. This weekend you were given 2 questions to better identify your strengths and be aware of the areas that are not areas of strength. What have you discovered from these two questions:

What are the common threads of how you've naturally thought, felt and behaved over time that have brought your energy?

What are the common threads that suck the life out of you?

5. What is one step you can take or are taking to better lean into your areas of strength
