

The Burnout Society: How To Win Financially

This is the opportunity for your group will discover what God might be saying to you out of the weekend experience, and how you can respond through a group discussion.

This guide is designed to help you create meaningful conversations. Adjust the questions as needed, and don't feel like you need to answer all of them.*

DISCUSSION QUESTIONS

1. What stood out to you the most from the weekend message?
2. Why did that stand out to you most? What do you think God might be trying to say? (It's ok if you're just guessing. This will give you some space to process what it might be.)
3. Do you consider yourself a generous person?
4. If you have a little extra money come your way, what is your first instinct on what to do with that money?

Read 1 Timothy 6:6-12

But godliness with contentment is great gain. For we brought nothing into the world, and we can take nothing out of it. But if we have food and clothing, we will be content with that. Those who want to get rich fall into temptation and a trap and into many foolish and harmful desires that plunge people into ruin and destruction. For the love of money is a root of all kinds of evil. Some people, eager for money, have wandered from the faith and pierced themselves with many griefs. But you, man of God, flee from all this, and pursue righteousness, godliness, faith, love, endurance and gentleness. Fight the good fight of the faith.

5. Have you ever experienced the feeling of never having enough? Was that because you didn't have enough or because you didn't think you had enough?
6. How would you say you are you doing with contentment? On a scale of 1-10, with one being no peace or contentment and ten being complete peace and contentment, what number are you and why?
7. This past weekend, Curt said that nothing breaks the power of money in our lives like generosity.
 - How have you experienced this?
 - How did you get started?
 - How do you intentionally plan generosity into your life?

THE BURNOUT
society

Wrap It Up: Before you wrap up, what how you can pray for each other to take steps in opting out of The Burn Out Society.

More from the Weekend

Join us next weekend for part 3 of The Burnout Society as we look at how technology may be causing burnout in your life and how you can effectively manage your screen time.

See you next week!