

Crosspoint Vision Weekend

It's part celebration, part behind the scenes storytelling, part vision for the future, all inspiration.

This is the opportunity for your group will discover what God might be saying to you out of the weekend experience, and how you can respond through a group discussion.

This guide is designed to help you create meaningful conversations. Adjust the questions as needed, and don't feel like you need to answer all of them.*

1. How long have you been connecting at Crosspoint and why did you show up for the first time?
2. What stood out to you the most from the weekend message?
3. Why did that stand out to you most? What do you think God might be trying to say? (It's ok if you're just guessing. This will give you some space to process what it might be.)
4. How have you grown in faith as a result of Crosspoint? (need a little primer: . How have you changed? How is your life different? How is your confidence different? How if your marriage different? How is your family different?) Anyone can begin.

Read ROMANS 10:14-15

But how can they call on him to save them unless they believe in him? And how can they believe in him if they have never heard about him? And how can they hear about him unless someone tells them? And how will anyone go and tell them without being sent? That is why the scriptures say, "How beautiful are the feet of messengers who bring good news!"

5. Paul tells us that 'beautiful are the feet of those who help others see and experience the good news of Jesus.' If you serve, financially give or both, what does it mean to you to know that you are part writing stories into people's lives for eternity?
6. What is one thing you get excited about in where God is leading us?

Wrap It Up: Before you wrap up, share how you can pray for each other this week.
